ABOUT

Serial entrepreneur and university program director with over 30 years at the intersection of entrepreneurship, academic leadership, and economic development. Built and led university-based programs at the University of Houston and Prairie View A&M University. Secured more than $20 million in venture capital and private equity across multiple industries. Currently building two fintech companies focused on financial inclusion in Mexico — bringing digital payment infrastructure to communities historically left out of the banking system.

CURRENT VENTURES

Founder & CEO

2024–Present

PagoYa — pagoyamx.com

Mobile-first fintech for Mexico's 60M+ underbanked. Instant bill payments (CFE, Telmex, 200+ billers) via digital wallet — no bank account required. Built on SIPREL, Conekta, and OXXO Pay rails. Features Paula, an agentic AI financial assistant that handles end-to-end bill payments via WhatsApp.

Founder & CEO
